It is mutually agreed that in accordance with the aforesaid Regulations, the benefit of this Policy, and the right to receive or enforce payment thereon, may be passed, whether before or after claim, by endorsement, and that such endorsees or the bearer of the Policy, if entitled under production of this Policy shall have power to receive and give receipts for, or to endorse or assign over, as provided by the said Regulations any claim thereon which otherwise must be referred to England for settlement, and no legal proceedings shall be taken to enforce payment in execution in England against Underwriters who are alone domiciled and carry on business.

It is further agreed that in accordance with the aforesaid Regulations the Underwriters shall pay the remuneration to Lloyd's Agent for adjusting and settling any claim on this Policy on the basis of the percentage specified in such Regulations and that the same shall be paid by them to the Corporation of Lloyd's for remittance to the Agent.

In case of goods arriving damaged immediate notice must be given to the Lloyd's Agent authorised to settle claims under this Policy, in order that he may survey them. In the case of goods surveyed or dealt with at a port of distress the notice must be given to the nearest Lloyd's Agent.
